

AFTER MARCH CULTURAL EVENT

Ain't no half-steppin' on this stage! Entertainment will be the legendary musician/folksinger Markita Moore, socio-sultry poet Tracey Morris, author/activist Writer L. Bush, and soulful songstress Sista Otis! This FREE entertainment event will be held inside Central United at the conclusion of the march! But oh, there's moore...! Jessica Care Moore is performing? That's all you had to say, brotha! The diva herself is on stage with her soul on her tongue and her heart on display. Also performing: Mahogany Cafe-era poet Joel Fluent Greene, musician / songwriter / singer / peacenik Ellen Keyt, Alex White, inspirational poet NatashaBeautifulThought Anee, activist rap artist and performer Detroit Boss Player, and the young jazzical trio that is burnin' up stages throughout the D: the KDJ Trio! And did I mention Jessica Care Moore? Wow! 2 hours, 2 Moore's, and all that talent? Tell a friend! Let's celebrate our day for KING in unity! In harmony... gay/straight, young/old, Black/white. what Moore can we say?

DONATIONS URGENTLY NEEDED! Checks to: Detroit MLK Day
Mail to Detroit MLK Day Committee, 5920 Second Ave., Detroit, MI 48202

